SECTION F                      TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. I/we agree not to hold MIOSA or any of its staff liable for any loss or damage of any nature that I/we may suffer as a result of MIOSA accepting and dealing with this complaint.
2. I/we hereby undertake not to be abusive or insulting when communicating with the MIOSA.
3. I/we hereby irrevocably and unconditionally consent that:
  - 3.1. MIOSA will have the right to use any documents and/or other evidence submitted in the process to resolve the dispute through a conciliation process, in support of a recommendation made in a complaint.
  - 3.2. MIOSA will have the sole right to disclose all documents and/or other evidence received on the specific complaint to both the Respondent and Complainant.
  - 3.3. I/we authorise the other party to disclose any information to the MIOSA in regards to the complaint.
  - 3.4. MIOSA will have the discretion to disclose and/or publicise their recommendation including any supportive documents and/or evidence, as well as reporting it to the appropriate authorities, eg, National Consumer Commission (NCC), the Department of Trade, Industry and Competition (dtic) and the National Consumer Tribunal (NCT) in terms of the South Africa Automotive Industry Code of Conduct (Code).
4. In order for MIOSA to investigate the complaint objectively, independently, and in terms of the South African law, the parties will at no stage during the investigation approach or divulge any information regarding the complaint to the press, social media, or any other format of publication.
5. I/we accept that MIOSA will not be able to attend to my/our complaint should I/we have commenced with legal action.
6. Neither I nor my representative will subpoena the documents in my/our file, or MIOSA, or any member of its staff. Neither I nor my representative will order that any of these documents be disclosed in terms of any court rule unless ordered to do so by a court of law.
7. I/we understand and comprehend the above and confirm that it is fair and reasonable in the circumstances to protect both myself/ourselves and the other party's rights to prevent prejudice in respect of our rights.
8. By lodging a complaint with MIOSA, the period of prescription of the claim is not stopped. I/we wish to confirm that my/our claim against the Respondent may prescribe in 3 years in terms of the Prescription Act No. 68 of 1969 and that the onus to stop prescription will be with me/us.

DATA SUBJECT DISCLOSURE NOTICE
SECTION 18
OF THE PROTECTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION ACT, 4 of 2013 (POPIA)

Privacy Notice

This notice explains how the Motor Industry Ombudsman of South Africa (MIOSA) obtains, uses and discloses your personal information, in accordance with the requirements of POPIA. MIOSA is committed to protecting your privacy and to ensuring that your personal information is collected and used properly, lawfully, and transparently.

Definition of personal information

“Personal Information” shall mean the race, gender, sex, pregnancy, marital status, national or ethnic origin, colour, sexual orientation, age, physical or mental health, disability, religion, conscience, belief, culture, language and birth of a person; Information relating to the education or the medical, financial, criminal or employment history of the person; Any identifying number, symbol, email address, physical address, telephone number, location information, online identifier or other particular assignment to the person; The biometric information of the person; The personal opinions, views or preferences of the person; Correspondence sent by the person that is implicitly or explicitly of a private or confidential nature or further correspondence that would reveal the contents of the original correspondence; The views or opinions of another individual about the person, whether the information is recorded electronically or otherwise.

Both individuals and companies are included in the ambit of personal information.

It is not personal information if the information is already in the public domain or is not used, or intended to be used, in trade or commerce.

The information MIOSA collects

MIOSA collects and processes your personal information, and further processes your information, mainly to execute our mandate in terms of the provisions of Section 82(3) of the Consumer Protection Act, 68 of 2008 (CPA) and the ancillary South African Automotive Industry Code of Conduct (Code). MIOSA is mandated to regulate relations between persons conducting business within the automotive industry, to provide for a scheme of alternative dispute resolution between consumers and all participants in the industry, and to provide alternative dispute resolution services.

MIOSA is also mandated in terms of the Code to collect contributions from persons conducting business within the Automotive Industry. Information enabling such collection is also collected and processed, and further processed, if necessary.

MIOSA collects information directly from you, where you provide us with your personal and/or business' details. Where possible, MIOSA will inform you what information you are required to provide and what information is optional. With regards to the conducting of business within the Automotive Industry, MIOSA also collects information via field inspectors, the internet, and social media platforms.

Website usage information may be collected using “cookies” which allows MIOSA to collect standard internet visitor usage information.

How MIOSA uses your information

MIOSA will use your personal information only for the purposes for which it was collected and will only process personal information if the below mentioned conditions are met:

- The person is told why the processing is necessary, what information is required and what will be done with it; or
- The person consents to the processing, which consent will be obtained at the time when that person's personal information is processed; or
- The processing is necessary i.e. in order to conduct an accurate analysis of that person's needs for purposes of amongst other employment reasons, medical aid requirements; or
- The processing is required as a result of, or in order to, comply with an obligation imposed by law; or
- The processing protects a legitimate interest of the person, and it is in the person's best interest; or
- Processing is necessary for pursuing the legitimate interests of the MIOSA or of a third party to whom the personal information is supplied.

Disclosure of information

MIOSA may disclose your personal information to its service providers who are involved in the delivery of services to MIOSA. MIOSA has agreements in place with the service providers to ensure that they comply with the privacy requirements as required by POPIA.

MIOSA may also disclose your information:

- Where MIOSA has a duty or a right to disclose in terms of legislation or the Code;
- Where MIOSA believes it is necessary to protect its rights.

Information Security

MIOSA is legally obliged to provide adequate protection for the personal information it holds and to stop unauthorised access and use of personal information. MIOSA will, on an ongoing basis, continue to review its security controls and related processes to ensure that your personal information remains secure.

MIOSA's security policies and procedures cover:

- Physical security;
- Computer and network security;
- Access to personal information;
- Secure communications;
- Security in contracting out activities or functions;
- Retention and disposal of information;
- Acceptable usage of personal information;
- Governance and regulatory issues;
- Monitoring access and usage of private information;
- Investigating and reacting to security incidents.

When MIOSA contracts with third parties, it imposes appropriate security, privacy, and confidentiality obligations on them to ensure that personal information which MIOSA remains responsible for, is kept secure.

MIOSA will ensure that anyone to whom it passes your personal information to agrees to treat your information with the same level of protection as MIOSA is obliged to.

Your Rights

Access to information

You have the right to request a copy of the personal information MIOSA holds with regards to you. Refer to MIOSA's PAIA and POPIA Manual on MIOSA's website for the steps to follow.

Please note that any such access request may be subject to a payment of a legally allowable fee.

Correction of your information

You have the right to ask MIOSA to update or correct your personal information. MIOSA would appreciate it if you would keep your personal information up to date and accurate.

Refer to MIOSA's PAIA and POPIA Manual on MIOSA's website for the steps to follow.
